

2025 General Council
DAILY REPORT
Persevere In Your Witness

Completing Christ's mission: reaching the captives, the blind, and the oppressed of our time

Jesus' first words in ministry have carried a message that still resonates today. Tuesday's Bible study leader brought it home to delegates to the 27th General Council of the WCRC. Click here.

27th General Council of the WCRC approves reports on "Theologies for a Wounded World" and Mission

Delegates take up two reports for approval as leaders give thanks for discernment groups and their work. Click here.

Sacred journey toward WCRC's changing vision is only just beginning

Four speakers reflect on the day's theme "Discerning the mission and vision of the WCRC." From more accessible theology to a more courageous compassion, their calls are drawn from the analytical minds and open hearts of the General Council. Click here.

Delegates elect Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson as WCRC
 president

On Wednesday, about 400 delegates to the World Communion of Reformed Churches' 27th General Council elected the Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson, general minister and president of the United Church of Christ in the United States, as the WCRC's next. Click here.

A German national public radio broadcast focuses on WCRC

Millions of listeners across Germany recently had the opportunity to learn more about the work of the WCRC following a recent national public radio broadcast. Click here.

Moments from the 27th General Council

Over the past 10 days, we've captured meaningful moments from the 27th General Council of the WCRC — from worship and dialogue to fellowship and reflection. All livestreams and highlights are available on our YouTube channel. Watch and subscribe here.

© 2025 World Communion of Reformed www.wcrc.eu

Persevere in Your Witness

