

World Communion
of Reformed Churches

2025 General Council
DAILY REPORT
Persevere In Your Witness

In Case You Missed It: Highlights from Our Recent Exposure Trips

Learn how the MAP Foundation in Thailand is empowering migrant workers to claim their rights — click here.

Discover how Karen communities near the Thai-Myanmar border are using education and faith to rebuild hope — click here.

See how young adult leaders in Thailand are strengthening the church through love and unity — click here.

WCRC General Council Highlights from 17 October

Discover how young stewards and the pastoral-care team at the World Communion of Reformed Churches 27th General Council were honoured for their service — click here.

A Bible study explores freeing ourselves from mental slavery and the power of sharing a meal in community — click here.

Reflections on how justice happens in the little everyday actions that nibble away at social norms — click here.

Read the reports from the 27th Commission on gender justice and financial sustainability at the WCRC — click here.

Learn how covenanting for justice remains central to the WCRC's witness at the General Council — click here.

See how delegates at the 27th Council listened deeply to reports on communion, interfaith partnership, Mennonite action and justice — click here.

© 2025 World Communion of Reformed Churches
www.wcrc.eu

Persevere in Your Witness

