

World Communion
of Reformed Churches

2025 General Council
DAILY REPORT
Persevere In Your Witness

WCRC Leaders Call for 'Communion of Hope' at 27th General Council

The third day of the 27th General Council of the World Communion of Reformed Churches (WCRC) opened under the theme "Persevere in Fostering Just Communion," setting the tone for a day of reflection, unity and challenge. Click here.

Disability Theology and Christian Witness: Insights from Miriam Spies

Rev. Dr. Miriam Spies, an ordained minister in the United Church of Canada and a self-identified "Crip Theologian," led a profound Bible study on Luke 22. Drawing from her lived experience with a physical disability, Spies challenged traditional interpretations of healing, urging a shift from ableist perspectives towards embracing the fullness of diverse bodies in Christian ministry. Click here.

WCRC's Discernment Process Commences at 27th General Council

The discernment process commenced on Thursday afternoon, engaging approximately 400 delegates in small groups to reflect on four key reports:

from the President, General Secretary, and the Women's and Youth Caucuses. Moderated by Rev. Dr. Michael Blair, General Secretary of the United Church of Canada, the session emphasized the centrality of discernment in the Council's work. Click here.

Rev. Otis Moss III Calls for Salt and Light at WCRC

Rev. Dr. Otis Moss III, Senior Pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago, delivered a compelling message urging the Church to embody its prophetic calling. Drawing from the Gospel of Matthew, he emphasized the imperative for Christians to be both "salt" and "light" in the world, advocating for justice, compassion, and unwavering commitment to the marginalized. Click here.

Persevere in Your Witness

2025 General Council
DAILY REPORT
Persevere In Your Witness

#ThursdaysInBlack

Delegates at the 27th General Council of the World Communion of Reformed Churches (WCRC) wore black on Thursday as part of the “Thursdays in Black” campaign, standing in solidarity against gender-based violence and advocating for justice and equality.

Stay connected on social media and visit our website! www.wcrc.eu

Don't forget to watch the full proceedings on our YouTube channel: @WCRC

© 2025 World Communion of Reformed Churches

Persevere in Your Witness

