WCRC 27th General Council Opens

More than 400 participants from around the world have gathered in Chiang Mai, Thailand, for the World Communion of Reformed Churches 27th General Council. The Church of Christ in Thailand is hosting this global gathering for the first time. Click here.

The Protestant Church and Thailand: Building Relationships for Nearly 200 Years

The roots of Protestant Christianity in Thailand trace back nearly two centuries to pioneering missionaries whose passion for faith and education left an enduring mark on this Southeast Asian nation. Click here.

Learning from Onesimus: A Call to Justice and Transformation

Amid conversations on faith, justice, and the evolving mission of the Church at the WCRC 27th General Council, a compelling workshop reminded participants that authentic discipleship calls not just for reflection, but for courageous repentance and meaningful reform. Click here.
